		James K. Craig was born in Kentucky, December 28, 1824, and came with his parents to Marion county, Illinois, at the age of twelve and one-half years. The father of the subject was James Craig, who was born in the Blue Grass state June 1, 1784. His mother was also born in Kentucky in April, 1787. Her maiden name was Sevilla Hanks, being a sister of Lincoln's mother, Nancy Hanks. In their family were 19 children, our subject being next to the youngest in order of birth. His father came to Illinois in 1837 and settled in the wilderness. Our subject was united in marriage with Catherine Wilkinson, the daughter of Jehu Wilkinson, of Scotch descent, the day of their wedding occurring on February 25, 1847. Nine children were born to this union, six of whom are living in 1908. The following are the names of the subject's children : Benjamin D., James H., Elizabeth, Sarah, Ann, Samuel, Jehu, Ida and John E. (Information from Brinkerhoff's History of Marion Co., IL - pages 531-532)
