		feet dragged the ground. He was one of our early settlers, coming here soon after the close of the war and settling on a farm southeast of this city. Here he remained until moving to town. He could related much of the early history of our city and he took great pride in doing so. The body was accompanied by his son, Noah, of Urbana, Ill. Interment in Eastland Cemetery in the concrete vault which was constructed by the deceased several years ago. Had 8 children with 1 st wife, all of whom are deceased except the youngest son, Noah, of Urbana. Mr. BREWER served his country during the Civil War with Co. D., 1st Alabama Cavalry. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, of the B.P.O.E. of Champaign, and an ex-minister of the gospel of the Latter Day Saints.

ANNA & Cornelia (_____) ANNA; Born: Oct. 28, 1893 in Chicago; Died: Nov. 13, 1918 from wounds in WWI battle in France (Obituary in "The Kinmundy Express" - July 28, 1921) His mother died when he was 8, and he made his home with his grandparents in Kinmundy. He graduated from Kinmundy High School at the age of 16, and entered Wesleyan University and completed a 4 year law course in 3 years, graduating at the age of 20. He enlisted in June 1917, being first rejected on account of light weight, and a month later he enlisted and was accepted. At Camp Logan in Houston, Texas, he was made instructor due to his proficiency in the use of the rifle, but as his division was ordered overseas, he was granted permission to accompany them, even though the Dept. wished to retain him at Camp Logan. He landed in France in May 1918, and it was at the Battle of Argonne that he was mortally wounded by a gunshot and high explosives on Nov. 10, 1918. The day before Armistice, he was carried cheering his comrades on to victory, to a Hospital in France where he died Nov. 13. He was buried in France by his comrades on that same day. At the request of his father, the government of the USA has brought from overseas the remains of this soldier. The funeral was held at the home residence at Galena, Ill. on July 2, 1921. Burial was made with full military honors in Greenwood Cemetery. Son of George ANNA & Cornelia (SEE) ANNA;

	RENNIE, James A. Born: Sept. 30, 1838	James A. RENNIE; Born: Sept. 20, 1838 in Armagh, Ireland; Son of Thomas RENNIE & Mary (STRATTON) RENNIE; Married (1) Mariah E. FALKUNBARRA in 1866; Married (2) Eliza E. BASS His family growing up had three children, namely: William J., James A., and Samuel. Thomas Rennie came to America in 1847, and settled in Rhode Island, later going to Boston, then to Providence, where he received employment. He was a machinist. He later moved to Arkwright and Hope, where he did all the machine work for the factories. In the year 1850 the family moved to Perry county, Indiana, and was engaged to work in the cotton mills of Cannelton. William, the oldest son, put up the first spindle frames in the mill where they were employed. With 1st wife had 1 child was born, Mariah E., who married M. F. Eagan, of Marion county. With 2nd wife had 3 children were born, namely: Rosa, whose date of birth occurred in 1876; Gertrude R., who was born January 10, 1882, and who died October 2, 1898; Oscar R., who was born 1, 1890. Rosa married Charles Hannah, superintendent of the Salem box factory. He enlisted as a private, but was such a gallant soldier that he became sergeant and served as such throughout the war.

		He was in seventeen battles and skirmishes. He was in the Thirty-fifth Indiana Volunteer Infantry under John C. Walker of United States bond fame. He also served under Dick Ryan, of Indianapolis, Mayor Bolt, Colonel Mullen, son of adjutant Mullin, who was shot at Dobbins Ford, Tennessee, under Van Cleve's division. Thomas Rennie and his sons, William and James, all enlisted in the Union army from Perry county, Indiana, in 1861, for three years' time. William was wounded in a skirmish during the first of the war, having had his limb broken in two places. He reached an old age. Lieutenant Canoe states that James A. Rennie was as brave a man as ever followed the American flag.

	GRAY, James June 2, 1789 – Oct. 3, 1835	James GRAY; Son of William GRAY & _____ (McNABB) GRAY; Married Martha A. DENTON “James Gray, was born in Maury county, Tennessee, June 20, 1789. He married Martha Denton in the year 1808 and moved to Marion county, Illinois, in 1828, and settled the old homestead on section 10, being one of the first settlers of the county. They had four sons, Joseph, William Harrison, James Harvey and Isaac Denton. James Gray was called into the United States' service by the Governor's proclamation dated April 19, 1832. He enlisted as second lieutenant of Spy Battalion, First Brigade of the Illinois Mounted Volunteers. He had one horse shot from under him and was on furlough August 1832, and honorably discharged August 16th, having served under Capt. William N. Dobbins. He also served in the Creek and Indian war and the Black Hawk war. He was a powerful man physically, having measured six feet two inches and weighing two hundred ten pounds. He was the first Justice of the Peace in Kinmundy township, which office he held until his death. He also sowed the first timothy seed in this township in 1843. He and his brother Joseph furnished to the settlers the first sawed lumber, which they sawed with a whipsaw. He also taught school in a cabin in the neighborhood. The early preachers of the Baptist and Cumberland Presbyterian denominations held meeting in his home.

		He died suddenly by an accident on October 3, 1835, leaving a widow and family of eight children. His widow, Martha Gray, entered eighty acres of land February 13, 1837, where they started their improvements. It was the west half of the southeast quarter of section 10, Kinmundy township. The following fall she entered forty acres more in the same section. She was born in April, 1786, and departed this life May 27, 1844." (Info. from Brinkerhoff's History of Marion Co., IL - 1909)
