Class of 1879

Mrs. Addie Coleman-Melrose
 Daniel Gunn
 Ada B. Skilling Deceased,

Public School.

The examination yesterday at the pub-school called together a large number of parents, citizens and strangers. The Commencement at the M. E. church, South, in the evening. Music by the choir, prayer by Rev. G. W. Grabe, music. The Salutatory by Miss Adie Coleman, 'What Good,' by Daniel Gunn, and Valedictory, by Miss Ada Skilling, were all well spoken, clearly showing much study, and would have done honor to much older and experienced heads.
 The address by A. L. Reynolds, of Odin, was well delivered. The presentation of the diplomas by Dr. Murchison, could not have been better; the reception equally as good. The remarks of Supt.
 J. B. Abbott was to the point, and instructive. Prof. Cokerower gave, in short, a history of the commencement, progress and close of the last session; future prospect. Public opinion has clearly spoken by these closing exercises, calling together so many hundreds of our home citizens and from different parts of the county.

Former Kinman Girl Dies

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Della Rebecca Shultz Avery were held at the home at 92nd Blackhawk St. at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, and interment was made in the West Aurora cemetery. Mrs. Avery, wife of Andrew W. Avery died at the Aurora Hospital Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. She was born in Shebonier, March 8, 1863. Beside her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Louise Rockwood, and two sons, Oliver of St. Louis, and Walter A. of Omaha; one sister Mrs. Emma Shultz Sawyer; two brothers, Oliver and Adolph Shultz of Chicago, and six grandchildren.

The above was taken from the Aurora paper. Della was a Kinman girl; her parents moved to this city when she was a child and grew to womanhood here, was educated in our public school and was a graduate of the Class of 1881. Her many friends remember her as a sweet and lovable character, ever ready to help in all good works and learn with much regret of her passing away. They also wish to extend to the bereaved husband and family their heartfelt sympathy.

After the speech of the president and rendition of the musical programme, the members of the class of "1900" were introduced to the Alumni Goat, and proved to be graceful but reluctant riders. After refreshments all had a good time and returned home well pleased with the evenings entertainment.

G, 130th Infantry, 33d (Prairie) Division, at Effingham, and went to Camp Logan, Houston, Texas, May 24, 1918, arrived at Brest, fought under three flags Australian, British and French. The chaplain of the 130th Infantry writes of the movements of this 33d division from the time they steamed into Brest, May 24, until the order came to cease firing at 11:00 a. m., Nov. 11, 1918. Herman was mortally wounded Nov. 10, at Marchville, France, died Nov. 13, and was buried at Commercy, France. This reads the story of continuous fighting, in which one of our own boys was engaged and the blue star was turned to gold. The body sleeps beneath the poppies of France. E. D. McCall has beautifully written:

Banquet Served at Seven O'clock Large Number in Attendance.

The Alumni Association of the local High School held its annual meeting in the K. P. hall Tuesday evening. At seven o'clock about seventy of the Alumni and friends together with the twelve members of the Class of 1916, sat down to a three course banquet served by the Howell Cafe. The enjoyment of the feast was greatly enhanced by the interspersing of brief and witty toasts from several of the members between the courses. The Alumni colors, green and white, were very much in evidence.

After the inner man had thus been appeased all repaired to the lodge room where the following short program was rendered:

- Music K. P. Orchestra
- "Memory Bells" Alumni Quartet
- Mary Gramley, Alice Sexton, Herman Anna, Herschel Wilkinson
- Reading Nita Balke
- Vocal Duet "Life Dream"
- Elizabeth Swift, Bessie Sexton
- Vocal Solo Mrs. W. S. Pruett
- Vocal Solo Miss Laura Fisher

At the conclusion of the program the meeting was turned over to C. E. Wilkinson, Chairman of the Initiation committee. With the assistance of Webster Lowe, Edward Lowe, E. C. Bargh, Jas. Garrett, Herschel Wilkinson and Ray White the class was put through an initiation ceremony which afforded a great deal of amusement not only to the audience but the class as well. At a rather late hour all departed feeling that this had been the most successful meeting held in years.

At a short business session held at the conclusion of the initiation Miss Agnes Fisher was elected President and Miss Bessie Sexton, Secretary and Treasurer of the Association for the ensuing year.

Barcroft-Nirider

1923

Mr. Victor V. Barcroft and Miss Georgia Nirider were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Carroll at the M. E. Parsonage in Salem, Monday evening June 4th. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Nirider and Miss Ruth Rohrbough, of this city, were present at the ceremony.

This was indeed a surprise to everyone, even to the bride's parents. The date set for the wedding was Thursday, June 7, at Centralia and the announcements were ordered accordingly. But the contracting parties, wishing to surprise everyone, were married on the above mentioned date.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nirider. She is a life long Kiamundian and well known and liked by everyone. She is a graduate of our high school with the class of 1918. She was employed to teach the primary grade in our schools last year and has been re-employed for the coming term.

The groom hails from Keyesport, Ill., that is to say that his parents live in Keyesport, but he has been a resident of our city for the past six years, having been employed as Principal of our high school for the past two years and has been re-employed for that position for the coming term.

The young couple will make their home in the Mauds Porter property east of the I. C. R. R. station. We join their many friends in extending hearty congratulations.

Alumni Meeting Saturday

Once more the mystic veil was lifted to reveal to the chosen ones the mysteries of the Alumni Association of Kinross High School, when the Class of 1919 was admitted at the annual meeting of the Association last Saturday night, at K. of P. hall.

Nearly a hundred members and guests gathered for the occasion and thoroughly enjoyed the entire proceedings. An interesting program had been prepared as follows:

Song, America; Reading, by Paul Conant; Vocal Duet, Bessie and Alice Sexton; Vocal Duet, Lela Swift and Amelia O'Brien; Paper, To the Boys of the Blue, Silver and Gold Stars, Mrs. A. E. W. Pruett.

The unique initiation ceremonies furnished considerable merriment and enjoyment for all, following which all retired to the banquet hall, where refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee had been provided. The inner man having thus been satisfied, there were a number of splendid talks, without which such a gathering would never be complete. Those who responded to the call of the president, Norris Vallow, were: Dr. A. J. Boston, C. F. Pruett, Prof. C. L. Edwards, Miss Hacker, Miss Botes and Miss Baggatt.

The remainder of the evening was not a cotching to the whims of the individual, with all of them feeling at the occasion had been well worth

Large Attendance

On last Friday evening the Alumni Association held their annual reception in the K. of P. Hall with a goodly number present. There were twenty-one members in the class of 1920 to be initiated but for some reason or other four of the members did not show up to become a member of the Association. The four were Elizabeth Chaytor, Joseph Ramser, Alta Sutton and Charles West.

A short program was rendered after which followed the initiation which everyone present enjoyed very much. Light refreshments were served and short talks were given at the table. Everyone present had a chance to talk and nearly everyone responded. A good talk was given by John Nelson on the subject "Hottain't it" which everyone present took serious.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way all hoping that next year would soon come around.
